Nepal Law Campus (NLC)

Nepal Law Campus is the oldest college imparting legal education in Nepal. NLC witnessed many ups and downs in legal education system. As a constituent campus of Tribhuvan University and as the oldest institution imparting legal education, NLC has the great contribution in Legal Education. NLC is proud of providing highest and competent leadership for judiciary and other mechanism within the country and abroad.

Legal Education in Nepal

Traditional legal education system which was imparted by Shrestha Patshala was not sufficient to meet the needs of the time. The political changes of 1950 caused restructuring in every field of social sector. Consequently, Nepal Law College (present NLC) was established in 1954 to produce necessary human resource for the country in legal sector. In the year 1971, National Education System Plan was implemented with the objectives of producing necessary, competent human resources of different levels in different areas to meet the country's needs to achieve its development goals. It significantly made a great breakthrough in the legal education system as well in the country by incorporating Nepalese laws in the courses of study. In 1972, the Institute of Law prepared 2 years comprehensive curriculum for Certificate Level (CL) and 3 years curriculum for Diploma in Law (D.L.).

In the year 1980-1986, Tribhuvan University underwent a massive restructuring. Consequently, the Institute of Law renamed as the Faculty of Law was empowered to frame and coordinate academic activities concerning legal education. Consequently, 2 years Certificate Level (CL) and 3 years Diploma in Law were renamed as Proficiency Certificate in law (PCL) and Bachelor's Degree in Law (B.L.) respectively.

In 1996, Tribhuvan University, Faculty of Law introduced after graduation three years Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) programme. The Proficiency Certificate in Law was phased out and 3 years Bachelor's Degree in Law (B.L.) was replaced by Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.). Currently NLC is also running two years Master of Laws (LL.M.) programme since 1996.

In the changed context Tribhuvan University, Faculty of Law completely revised existing curriculum of three years LL.B. and two years LL. M. in 2009. In addition to these programmes, a three year LL.M. programme has also been introduced from 2012.

B.A.LL.B. Programme

In order to make legal education compatible with changed national and international context, Tribhuvan University, Faculty of Law has introduced new five years B.A.LL.B. courses from 2010. The course basically aims to enrich law students with comprehensive theoretical and practical knowledge in indigenous as well as foreign legal traditions, lawyering skills, and research to meet the challenges of the age.
